ARCHBISHOP DUNCAN WILLIAMS

SHOW TITLE – THE VOICE OF INSPIRATION

Archbishop N. Duncan-Williams is known in many parts of the world as the "Apostle of Strategic Prayer." He is the General Overseer of Christian Action Faith Ministries, with over 100 affiliate and branch churches located in North America, Europe, Asia and Africa. He is also the Founder and President of Prayer Summit International. Prayer Summit brings the message and the power of prayer via conferences to many U.S. cities and abroad with its emphasis on corporate prayer, breaking down spiritual barriers that hinder revival in specific cities. Anointed in the ministry of prayer, healing and the prophetic, his teachings have touched countless lives over the past 32 years. His intense passion for intercession and strategic prayer is born out of his personal experience.

Archbishop Duncan-Williams offers counsel, direction and mentorship to upcoming ministry leaders as well as seasoned and established pastors and leaders. He has been instrumental in revival in many parts of the world. Archbishop believes that the different revivals that have come across the nations of our world were a result of prayer; for there is no substitute for prayer; prayer is the lifeline of the believer and the church of Jesus Christ.

He also believes that intercession will be the last move that will precede the coming of the Lord.

Archbishop Duncan-Williams has authored several books and can be seen weekly on his television program, The Voice of Inspiration, which is viewed by millions in Europe and Africa.
